

ADVANTAGE AUSTRIA

WORKSHOP HOW WILL EPBD AND UPCOMING EU LEGISLATION IMPACT NEW CONSTRUCTION AND RENOVATION IN CROATIA AND AUSTRIA

Tuesday, 17.10.2023

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

Venue: | Zagreb, Oris house (Kralja Držislava 3)

Tuesday, 17.10.2023

---

14.00 – 14.05

WELCOME AND A SHORT INTRODUCTION

Gerhard Schlattl, Austrian Trade Commissioner in Zagreb

Anđelka Toto Ormuž, ROCKWOOL Adriatic

---

14.05 – 14.10

SHORT AWARD CEREMONY ENERGY GLOBE AWARD

Winner: The “Green Library for Green Croatia” project, initiated by the National and University Library in Zagreb, aims to promote sustainable development, environmental awareness, and nature preservation. The project strives to engage library users and the general public in these crucial issues, fostering connections with organizations dedicated to preserving Croatian natural resources. The library aims to popularize sustainable development concepts and a healthy lifestyle through events, conferences, exhibitions, and thematic collections. Notably, the library has transitioned to a green business model, focusing on energy savings and digitization to reduce its carbon footprint.

Ivanka Stričević, National and University Library in Zagreb

---

14.10 – 14.20

SHORT INTRODUCTION “EPBD HIGHLIGHTS”

Anđelka Toto Ormuž, ROCKWOOL Adriatic

---

In Cooperation with

GREENIKA

oris

Sponsored by

---

WORKSHOP

The principle is as follows: Moderators accompany the Austrian and Croatian discussion partners at the pre-prepared topic tables. They rotate during the discussions. The aim is to exchange best practice examples and establish direct contacts with new business partners. The topics will be

14.20 – 15.50

EPBD impact on:

- Sustainable design and construction
- Choice of sustainable building materials
- Green financing
- Life Cycle Assessment (LCA)
- Green Certification

---

15.50 – 16.05

CONCLUSIONS OF THE WORKSHOP

---

16.05 – 17.00

B2B-NETWORKING-SNACKS WITH WORKSHOP PARTICIPANTS